College of Architecture, Navi Mumbai

Throughout the ages man has created his living environment with a concern for values of life a collective and an overall desire for beauty, order and beauty. Architecture in the broad sense aspires for a synthesis of human needs, perceptions and behavior and the technology of the modern age. In the modern age, design is said to be a blend of art and science. In educating we aspire to evolve a synthesis of the two. Bharati Vidyapeeth College of Architecture and Architecture Institute has been training students of Architecture since the year 1982. The college has progressed with a zest for achieving professional excellence through qualitative education.

Broad Objectives

In recent years, there has been growing awareness about the need for an education, which offers a more individual centered and a more holistic approach to education, which offers a more individual centered and a more holistic approach to education, which offers a more individual centered and a more holistic approach to education.

Bharati Vidyapeeth is committed to the education of the "Whole person" and the belief that education should be challenging. The college aims to realize the academic potential of each student. Yet, the education should go beyond this.
