7.1.10 – Code of conduct for students, teachers, administrators and other staff

Summary of the activities conducted for emphasising the Code of conduct for students, teachers, administrators and other staff:

At BVCOA, NM, Anti ragging committee monitors the code of conduct for students and staff. The committee acquaints the students entering the course of B. Arch at the time of orientation programme about the code of conduct required to be followed mandatorily. Dress code, etiquettes to be followed as students and basic behavioural rules are elaborately conveyed.

Also, the institute arranges various programmes to nourish the student's approach towards the field, the peers as well as seniors of the fraternity in order to create the ideal professionals.

The programmes help them to develop balanced thinking, sincere practices and positive outlook while maintaining dignity.
