Describe the Institutional efforts/initiatives in providing an inclusive environment i.e., tolerance and harmony towards cultural, regional, linguistic, communal socioeconomic diversity.

With the vision of social transformation through dynamic education, BVCOA, Navi Mumbai, strives to nourish a warm approach in the students and staff that fosters inclusive study-work environment for all.

Reservation policy prescribed by state government is being followed for the admission process that helps enrolling students belonging to various regional, religious, cultural, linguistic and socio-economic background.

In order to keep the spirit of togetherness nurtured within the campus, various festivals are celebrated as part of cultural activities which sensitises the participants towards different religions and sociocultural gestures.

Also, the platforms such as grievances redressal cell, internal complaint committee are operative with an approach that is unbiased of religion/ community/ language/ region which plays an active role in assuring all the students of different backgrounds a safe and healthy campus life.

The celebrations acquaint students with various lifestyles and cultural considerations as well as the various administrative committees ensure the bias free approach of the institute.
